Mosque vandalized for second time this week

- Windows smashed, 'terrorists' and 'vive David' spray-painted all over Gatineau place of worship on Thursday
- Man caught on surveillance video breaking mosque's windows, damaging cars in parking lot Monday morning

In the second attack on the Outaouais Islamic Centre this week, a vandal spray-painted hateful graffiti targeting Muslims and Arabs all over the Gatineau mosque at about 2:30 a.m. Thursday morning.

Gatineau police are considering the graffiti a hate crime, said spokesperson Pierre Lanthier.

The graffiti was discovered at about 4:30 a.m. by an officer who was patrolling the area around the mosque because of vandalism there earlier in the week.

The mosque's surveillance camera found the graffiti occurred about two hours earlier.

One of the mosque's members was on his way inside to pray Thursday afternoon when he saw the words "f---ing Arab" spray-painted on the front doors.

Even though it bothered him and made him feel unsafe, he said Muslims need to react peacefully.

"I can't let the person who tries to make us feel fear succeed," said Anass, who only gave his first name. "I have to stay praying at the mosque."

The second attack prompted the Canadian Council on American-Islamic Relations to renew

"Looking at the images themselves it seems pretty clear that these are anti-Muslim, anti-Arab messages. I think it bears all the hallmarks of a hate crime."

IHSAAN GARDEE, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
CANADIAN COUNCIL ON AMERICAN-ISLAMIC

calls for officials to condemn the vandalism and for police to investigate it as a hate crime.

"It's extremely hurtful," said executive director Ihsaan Gardee. "I don't think that it's something that is a common sentiment that's held by the majority of Canadians."

A mosque spokesperson was not available on Thursday. After Monday's vandalism, secretary of the mosque Amadou Thaim said the broken windows were simple vandalism, not motivated by hate.

"We are very established in this community and in general we have a very good relationship with our community, and so we don't think this is a hate crime," he said.

This is the third time in the last month and the fourth time in the last four months the mosque has been targeted by vandals.

Accused killer's court date postponed

A scheduled court date for an 82-year-old man accused of murdering his wife was put over until Monday because of medical issues, his lawyer said Thursday.

Ian Flann is accused of stabbing his wife, 82-year-old Doreen Flann, on Boxing Day at the Longfields Manor Retirement Home.

His lawyer, Solomon Friedman, has requested a psychiatric evaluation for Flann. He remains in custody at The Ottawa Hospital.

Woman faces arson charges

Ottawa police have laid multiple charges in Tuesday night's house fire on Hawthorne Avenue.

A 36-year-old Ottawa woman faces three counts of arson endangering life and one count each of assault, assault with a weapon, and breach of recognizance.

Police said the incident was a domestic dispute and released no names.

The fire caused about $550,000 worth of damage, said fire officials. One person was sent to hospital with smoke inhalation and a total of three people were displaced.

Man hired to blow up home in Quebec: Crown

► He had the house marked on a map at time of arrest ► Father of two refuses to make a statement as he's sentenced to four years in prison

JOE LOFARO
@METRONEWS.CA

The 36-year-old father of two who was found with an explosive device in the trunk of his car last January was going to be paid to blow up a Quebec home, Crown prosecutor Robert Wadden told the court Thursday.

Chad Baillargeon was sentenced to four years in prison yesterday after he pleaded guilty to numerous charges, including possessing an explosive with intent to endanger life or to cause serious property damage, after police found a bomb in his car during a traffic stop on Jan. 4, 2011, on Third Avenue.

He asked the officers to go into his trunk to get his identification from a bag, where they found a green toolbox, an alarm clock with wires sticking out of it, an electronic detonator and a plastic bag containing two nine-volt batteries.

When police questioned Baillargeon about the bomb components, he responded, "It is rocket propellant, and you know that it's not hooked up, so it is what it is. It would take care of 3,000-square feet," according to the statement of facts.

The device contained ammonium nitrate — a component for explosives — but was missing either gasoline or diesel, which would have been essential for detonation.

At the time, Baillargeon was under a weapons prohibition for a previous conviction. He will be prohibited from possessing weapons for the rest of his life.

Woman carjacked in Orleans: Police

Police are looking for two suspects who carjacked a woman who offered them a ride from the Orleans Park & Ride.

The woman met the two men aboard an OC Transpo Bus in Orleans, agreed to give them a lift and let one of the suspects drive her vehicle, said police.

A suspect in the back seat reached forward and choked her. Then they left her on a rural section of Tenth Line, said police. As they sped away, she was able to flag down a passing driver.

Police said the same suspects then committed two residential break and enters in Metcalf.

► Carjacking suspect

Both suspects speak English with no accent and are between 20 and 25 years old. One is over six feet (183 cm) in height with light black skin and a narrow nose and the other is five-foot-six (168 cm) with dark black skin and a stocky build.

Tuition rebate kicking in for Ont. students

► University students will save $1,600 per full school year ► College students will save $730 ► For more details, visit ontario.ca/30off

► Ottawa Centre MPP Yasir Naqvi announces the tuition rebate to students at Carleton University on Thursday.

STEVE COLLINS
OTTAWA@METRONEWS.CA

Starting this semester, about 300,000 Ontario college and university students can apply for a 30 per cent rebate on their tuition, MPPs told students across the province yesterday.

In Ottawa, MPP Yasir Naqvi held a press event at Carleton University. He said the price of keeping the Liberal campaign promise will be steep but worth it.

"The cost to the treasury, especially in these tough economic times, is about $430 million a year," he said, "but we are committed in ensuring that education remains affordable and accessible."

The rebate doesn't apply to part-time students and those who graduated from high school over four years ago — and opposition parties and the Canadian Federation of Students say the Liberals should reduce tuition fees for everyone.

Premier Dalton McGuinty held a similar event at Wilfrid Laurier University, where he also spoke about how the province will deal with the $16-billion deficit.

"We're all going to have a role to play if we're going to be as effective as we need to be in terms of strengthening this economy and ensuring that we're getting ever more value for the public dollars that are being invested," McGuinty said. WITH FILES FROM THE CANADIAN PRESS

Tuition rebate

You can apply for the 30 per cent tuition rebate if all of the following apply:

- You are a full-time student at a public college or university in Ontario.
- It's been less than four years since you left high school.
- You are in a program that you can apply to directly from high school.
- Your parents' gross income is $160,000 or less.

First nation seeks aid

► Ottawa says Attawapiskat bills will be paid as soon as band co-operates

First Nations in the James Bay region of Northern Ontario say their housing crisis is deepening despite the federal government's recent response to Attawapiskat.

In a statement issued Thursday, the troubled Attawapiskat First Nation said it won't be able to make its January payroll unless the federal government shows more flexibility.

Many families are still living in tents and substandard shelters there. And now essential services, such as education, are at risk because the $1.5 million earmarked for them has been placed in the hands of a government-appointed third party, according to a statement from the regional Mushkegowuk Council.

Neighbouring Cree communities along James Bay

"With temperatures now in the -30s and 40s, the chiefs are now calling on the federal and provincial governments to take immediate action on the housing crisis in Fort Albany and Kashechewan as well," the statement said.

The federal government contests almost every point in the council's statement.

Aboriginal Affairs Minister John Duncan said the third-party manager appointed by Ottawa to run Attawapiskat's finances will make sure all essential services are running smoothly and the bills are paid — as soon as the band starts co-operating with him and giving him the information he needs.

"As was addressed in a letter on January 4, 2012 to Chief (Theresa) Spence, the third-party manager is ready to issue payroll cheques for essential services, such as teachers, and will do so as soon as he is provided with the necessary information from the chief and council," Duncan said in an emailed statement.

He said families no longer need to live in tents because the local healing lodge has been renovated. It now has running water, bathrooms and heat, and is ready to accept families who feel they need better shelter.

Early retirement? Better think again

► Average worker wants to retire by 61, while 25- to 30-year-olds aim for 59

Canadians appear to be on a collision course with harsh reality when it comes to their increasingly unrealistic expectations for retiring early and comfortably.

With the underfunding in pension plans and rising household debt, a new TD Bank survey suggests Canadians haven't adjusted their retirement notions.

The survey shows six in 10 Canadians have less than $100,000 in household assets, not counting any home equity, while 16 per cent have no assets at all. The survey also found that 44 per cent of respondents believe they will have debt when they retire, and 13 per cent said their debt will be significant.

U.S. album sales rose by more than three per cent last year, the first gain since 2004 — a sign that rising digital sales are stemming the decade-long decline of CDs. DISASTER. Around the world, people ring bells or shoot fireworks to welcome the new year, but in Japan they celebrate by showing off their brushwork. Thousands of contestants took part in Japan's 48th annual New

Calligraphers this year were encouraged to write banners of well wishes for those affected by last year's devastating earthquake and tsunami.

"My banner reads 'Strong will' — for those hit by the disaster. I also wish an early spring will arrive there," said Kuramochi Jun, a 12-year-old student.

Synopsis

Award season is upon us. Soon Hollywood will hand out more gold than Fort Knox on free double day. This week the Reel Guys have a look at the first major awards, the Golden Globes.

► George Clooney's turn as a father in crisis in The Descendants looks like a solid contender for the best actor in a dramatic film.

Reel GuysRICHARD
MARK

► Breslin and Crouse make their picks for the Golden Globes ► Is it Clooney's year?

Richard: Mark, I enjoyed bits and pieces of a lot of movies in 2011 so choosing winners in the Golden Globe Best Movie categories is giving me a bit of a headache. In the drama category I'll have to go with Moneyball as the film that hit it out of the park. As for comedy or musical it's a toss up between The Artist, which was the best time I had at the movies overall this year, and Bridesmaids, which made me laugh more than any movie this year. You?

Mark: Yes, Richard, Moneyball was a fine film. But I can't believe it will take away any top prizes because it just lacked any real emotional content — and the ending, while true to life, was a bit of a dud. I think it's George Clooney's year, and that The Descendants is the film to beat in the drama category. As for comedy, Bridesmaids is the funniest movie of the year, although The Artist is a more audacious achievement. I notice its director is nominated in that category, and I hope he wins. He made me feel like I was in 1928!

RC: I think you're right about Clooney. He brings with him the kind of star power the Globes crave for their broadcast. The Artist, not so much. With that in mind it seems likely Meryl Streep will take the Globe for best dramatic actress for The Iron Lady. Her mix of star power and chops almost guarantees a win. As for Comedy or Drama, I'd like to see Kristen Wiig take it for Bridesmaids. Of all the nominees it is the only full-on comedic performance.

MB: You're right about La Streep. Frankly, she won it the day the trailer aired. And with Michelle Williams shunted into the comedy category, there's little competition for her. And although it's a real stretch to call Williams' Monroe homage 'comedy', her only competition will be Charlize Theron's dress. Kristin Wiig is a comedic genius — the best thing since Carol Burnett — but I think her bid will be scuttled by the movie's poop jokes. Unfair, perhaps, but pure comedy scares votes away — it just doesn't seem like acting.

RC: One movie I think is a lock is the hands-down favourite for Best Foreign Film, A Separation. I'll be shocked if this doesn't win.

MB: Haven't seen it, but the buzz has been deafening. As long as Cars 2 doesn't win for Best Animated Picture, I'll be a happy man.

Scene in brief

Actress-turned-director Sarah Polley is adapting Margaret Atwood's award-winning novel Alias Grace for the big screen. The project once again pairs the Toronto filmmaker with an acclaimed Canadian writer — Polley's celebrated directorial debut Away From Her was based on Alice Munro's short story The Bear Came Over the Mountain.

Movie reviews

Shame

Genre: Drama
Director: Steve McQueen
Stars: Michael Fassbender, Carey Mulligan

Steve McQueen squanders the promise of his fine debut Hunger on this turgid portrait of a sad-sack sex addict, acted with intensity by Michael Fassbender.

The well-heeled cruelty and big-city anomie feel borrowed from Bret Easton Ellis, but the film is worse than derivative: it's gruelling, high-toned and emotionally contrived.

● ADAM NAYMAN

Sleeping Beauty

Genre: Drama
Director: Julia Leigh
Stars: Emily Browning, Rachael Blake, Ewen Leslie

Sleeping Beauty wants desperately to be taken seriously but is, instead, simply a collection of ideas searching for a purpose. Sucker Punch's Emily Browning is Lucy, a lost young woman who allows herself to be drugged into unconsciousness for the sexual pleasure of older men. Like the character, the movie is searching for meaning. ● RICHARD CROUSE

Russell Brand just can't tell a lie

► Katy Perry told she 'wasn't that funny' by husband, according to source

SCENE@METRONEWS.CA

Katy Perry was reportedly blindsided by Russell Brand's divorce filing, but according to sources close to the singer there was plenty of evidence he was losing interest, according to Us Weekly.

"There were so many times when he wasn't there," a source says, offering the last night of

► Katy Perry

Perry's tour in November as an example: "He was totally uninterested and seemed annoyed he was there. I don't think he sat through one song."

And then there was Brand's response to her

Saturday Night Live hosting stint in December.

Perry reportedly begged Brand to appear in a skit on the episode, but he declined and stayed in L.A. instead. And after it aired?

"He told her that she wasn't that funny," the source says. "That really hurt."

But, um, he was right? It's hard to sit through a Katy Perry concert and she was Nancy Kerriganesque terrible on SNL.

Now, if only she would hit him with his own medicine and tell him to buy a bigger pair of pants.

Demi 'not worthy of being loved'?

Demi Moore admits that her split from Ashton Kutcher has left her shaken and insecure.

"What scares me is that I'm going to ultimately find out at the end of my life that I'm really not as lovable, that I'm not worthy of being loved," she tells Harpers Bazaar in a candid interview, adding that she fears finding out "that there's something fundamentally wrong with me and that I wasn't wanted here in the first place."

But Moore is moving forward, thanks to some profound advice.

"Somebody wrote something to me that said, 'Don't let your wounds make you become someone you're not.' That's really powerful. And not taking life too seriously," she says.

Forget acting, can Demi write a self-help book? She is the new Oprah!

20-minute make out session for Cooper, Saldana

Rumours about Bradley Cooper and his Words co-star Zoe Saldana getting close apparently had some truth to them, as the pair were spotted getting very cosy at a 1940s-themed New Year's Eve party in Bel Air, according to Us Weekly.

"They were making out for 20 minutes," a source says. And while they may be officially keeping each other's company, Saldana is reportedly hesitant to let things get too serious too soon.

"They're dating, but Zoe just left an engagement," says the source. "She's just looking to have fun."

Using salsa as a base for sauces adds tons of flavour without a lot of effort. Look for fresh tortellini or small ravioli and choose your favourite filling of meat or cheese.

Preparation:

- 1 In nonstick skillet, heat oil over medium heat and cook onion, garlic and oregano for 5 minutes or until softened. Add salsa and bring to a simmer and cook, stirring, for 3 minutes.
- 2 Stir in ricotta, 2 tbsp (25 mL) of the parsley and pepper.
- 3 Meanwhile, in large pot of boiling salted water, cook tortellini for about 8 minutes or until they are tender but firm (al dente).
- 4 Drain and add to sauce and toss to coat. Serve immediately or alternatively scrape into shallow casserole and sprinkle with cheese. Broil for 2 minutes or until cheese is melted and golden. Sprinkle with remaining parsley. EMILY RICHARDS IS A PROFESSIONAL HOME ECONOMIST, COOKBOOK AUTHOR AND TV CELEBRITY CHEF. FOR MORE, VISIT EMILYRICHARDSCOOKS.CA.

Ingredients:

- 1 tbsp (15 mL) extra virgin olive oil
- 1 small onion, finely chopped
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 tsp (5 mL) dried oregano
- 1 1/2 cups (375 mL) chunky medium salsa
- 1/2 cup (125 mL) ricotta cheese
- 3 tbsp (45 mL) chopped fresh parsley
- Pinch pepper
- 1 pkg (350 g) fresh cheese or meat tortellini pasta
- 1/2 cup (125 mL) shredded mozzarella cheese (optional)

Garlic Shrimp Pasta

► This recipe makes 4 servings.

Cooking with garlic

Garlic is a healthy ingredient to use in cooking and it also plays a large part in flavouring this dish.

Look for shrimp in your grocer's freezer section and keep them in your freezer to pull out for a great and easy dinner.

Preparation:

- 1 In large non-stick skillet, heat oil over medium heat and cook garlic and red pepper flakes for 1 minute or until garlic is starting to turn golden. Add wine and bring to boil. Add shrimp and cook for 4 minutes or until shrimp are pink and firm. Add parsley and butter and cook until melted.

- 2 Meanwhile, in large pot of boiling salted water, cook pasta for about 10 minutes or until al dente. Drain and add to shrimp mixture. Toss to coat with sauce.

Where does the time go? My first column of the New Year has traditionally been dedicated to my boozy predictions for the next 12 months, and here they are.

In the wine world old will be new again. Italy began a comeback late last year and its European neighbours in France and Spain are destined to share in the resurgence of consumer love for classically designed wines.

New World grape crushers from Canada (especially VQA vino from Ontario and B.C. and those earning the Tidal Bay appellation in Nova Scotia) will broaden their fan base and Chilean wine-makers will get the recognition they deserve.

Though premium vodka will rule the spirit world, I predict liqueurs will be the hard liquor breakout star with seemingly simple mixtures like the smooth and mouth-massaging combo of whiskey and honey that is Jack Daniel's Tennessee Honey ($28.95 to $29.99).

PETER ROCKWELL IS THE EVERYMAN'S WINE WRITER, WORKING IN THE LIQUOR INDUSTRY FOR MORE THAN 25 YEARS AND TRAVELLING THE GLOBE LOOKING FOR SOMETHING TO FILL HIS GLASS AND PUT INTO WORDS.

Four Sens voted as all-stars

The Ottawa Senators are assured of having at least four familiar faces on the ice when they host the NHL all-star game this month.

Defenceman Erik Karlsson led all vote-getters in fan balloting, and captain Daniel Alfredsson and fellow forwards Milan Michalek and Jason Spezza also were elected for the game on Jan. 29.

The NHL said Thursday they will be joined by Toronto defenceman Dion Phaneuf and Boston Bruins goalie Tim Thomas in this year's game.

The four Senators hold the top four spots on the club's scoring list, with Spezza leading the way with 40 points — three more than Karlsson. However, Karlsson topped everyone in the league with 939,951 votes, 42,536 more than Alfredsson.

Michalek got his spot with a late rush, beating out Toronto's Phil Kessel by 42,144 votes. Kessel had been in line to be voted in during the election period.

"It's great, obviously, to see all four of us getting in," Alfredsson said. "You look at Jason, Erik, and Milan, too, they've had great starts to the season. If we would have had to choose one player, it would have been tough because they've all played great to start the season. To be able to all get in when it is in Ottawa, it's going to be a special occasion for all of us and something we'll cherish forever, I'm sure." THE CANADIAN PRESS

Goalie gets it done

▶ Visentin shines in Canadian win over Finland for world junior bronze

A depleted Canadian team dug into its reserves to beat Finland 4-0 and capture the bronze medal at the world junior hockey championship Thursday.

Down three players due to injuries and a suspension, Canada extended the country's streak of winning a medal in the tournament to 14 consecutive years.

Goaltender Mark Visentin was the feel-good story of the game. He stopped a second-period penalty shot and made a no-look, around-the-back save early in the third. He finished with 27 saves for the shutout.

"It was pretty wicked to watch the puck go off my shoulder and off the crossbar," said Visentin of the acrobatic save in the final period. "I just saw it out of the corner of my eye go into my glove when I was reaching for it."

"I was kind of worried that I swept so far back that I put it in my own net, but once I saw it on the replay and the crowd started to go nuts, I had a feeling it wasn't in."

Visentin was in Canada's goal in last year's final in Buffalo, N.Y., where Russia scored five third-period goals to win the gold medal.

"Our best player was Mark Visentin who played outstanding and made big saves in each period," said head coach Don Hay. "I'm really happy for Mark and what he's gone through from last year's tournament."

"He really competed hard and it's great to see Mark play so well today and get the shutout."

Visentin had finished Canada's 6-5 semifinal loss to Russia on Tuesday because starter Scott Wedgewood was injured in the second. The Canadians trailed 6-1 early in the third in that game but a spirited comeback fell just short.

The short-staffed Canadians needed a big game from their goalie Thursday to get a medal and the Phoenix Coyotes prospect delivered. Visentin was named player of the game for Canada.

NFL playoff outsiders no more

► Post-season offers unique twist in 2012 with appearances from greenhorns Lions and Texans

Hey, Stranger.

Here's a playoff head-scratcher: Accompanying the New England Patriots, Green Bay Packers, Pittsburgh Steelers and New York Giants, are the Detroit Lions and Houston Texans.

On Saturday, the Texans kick off the NFL playoffs hosting Cincinnati. It's merely their first post-season game in a franchise history spanning 10 seasons.

At night, the Lions, whose last trip to the playoffs came in 1999 — and whose last win was eight seasons before that — play the Saints in New Orleans.

The lack of playoff familiarity doesn't seem to concern Detroit coach Jim Schwartz.

"We haven't always

"There's one thing of learning about something, there's another thing experiencing it firsthand and seeing how it affects the team."

DETROIT LIONS COACH JIM SCHWARTZ

played our very best, I don't think any team ever does," Schwartz said. "But I think we've learned from some of the things that have happened and I think we're a little bit more battle-tested, a little more seasoned."

It's Detroit's second go-round with the Saints in five weeks. The Lions fell 31-17 at the Superdome on Dec. 4.

lar-season game."

Born in 2002, the Texans didn't have a winning record until last season. Their AFC South crown seemed destined when Peyton Manning was sidelined in Indianapolis, but they struggled down the stretch and lost their final three games.

Indeed, Houston's last win was at Cincinnati 20-

"I've been part of a wildcard team that went to the Super Bowl, also been a part of a team that had home-field advantage throughout the playoffs and lost in the first game," said Schwartz, formerly a Tennessee Titans assistant coach. "So, I think the finality of playoffs ... that's probably the thing that's the most different from a regu-

"It's just, go play it like any other game," Texans coach Gary Kubiak said. "(The players) know that the result — the biggest factor — is you can move on."

On Sunday, Atlanta is at the Giants, followed by Pittsburgh at Denver.

Detroit Lions

The Lions have 17 players with playoff experience, but only kicker Jason Hanson got his with the Lions.

Houston Texans

It's Houston's first post-season trip as a franchise, but 14 Texans have made the playoffs with other clubs.

Send a KISS

You can now post your kiss, and read even more kisses, online at metronews.ca/kiss.

My Meg, mucho amo te. Thank you for all the joy, fun and life you have brought to me in this time together. You are a charming and wonderful woman and I can't help but fall in love with you deeper every day. I look forward to many more wonderful seasons ahead mi amor.

FROM RAFF

Mark

If you look into my eyes you would know where my heart belongs. A smile so bright and feelings so strong, when ever I am around you I feel so strong, the days are brighter with thoughts of you and everything we are going to do. If you go for my sister, I will be there too.

FROM ME

Today's horoscope

♈ Aries March 21-April 20 Yes, you've been in one place too long. Yes, you need a change of scene.
♉ Taurus April 21-May 21 You could easily spend too much or in some other way damage your reputation for prudence today.
♊ Gemini May 22-June 21 You may go over the top and annoy someone you really ought to stay on good terms with. Think before you speak or push 'send'.
♋ Cancer June 22-July 22 A job worth doing is a job worth getting paid the going rate for, and as you do a better job than most you are entitled to add a little bit extra.
♌ Leo July 23-Aug. 23 Creative activities will go well over the next 24 hours but they will go even better if you don't try to do everything yourself.

♍ Virgo Aug. 24- Sept. 22 It is always a mistake to compare yourself to other people and it would be even more of a mistake now.
♎ Libra Sept. 23-Oct. 23 Ideas will come thick and fast today but you won't achieve much if you try to follow up on each and every one of them.
♏ Scorpio Oct. 24-Nov. 22 There is something you have overlooked and you desperately need to find out what it is and take appropriate action.

♐ Sagittarius Nov. 23-Dec. 21

You may feel there is nothing you cannot do and you may be right, but you do in fact have limits like everyone else.

♑ Capricorn Dec. 22-Jan. 20

You may be on the verge of ending a project that does not seem to be going anywhere special but that would be a mistake.

♒ Aquarius Jan. 21-Feb. 18

Don't jump to conclusions and try to change things without consulting family and friends.

♓ Pisces Feb. 19-March 20. If you get the chance to move up in the world you must take it.
